Sandra was a great friend to my mother Rosa Lee Brewster during their teaching days at Wyandotte. Carpooling to work gave them lots of talking time. I just now learnec of her passing. My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Belynda Brewster

I'm so sorry to see that Sandra has left this world where she touched many a life. Mine was for only a short time while introducing a women's group to the Aveda Skin Care and Makeup Line. Her sweet spirit filled the room so much that I never forgot her. The years would cause our paths to cross from time to time and she was one that I never forgot her name, even though our time together was in the short space of an hour. Her presence was undeniable. I'm sure God has welcomed her home, with a "Well done, good and faithful servant."

My most distinct 1st grade memory is how Mrs Pirrong wouldn't let us call her "teacher". "You're in 1st grade now. You can call me by my name." I also remember our class getting in trouble for bringing toys, namely ninja turtle action figures, and being disruptive with them. I remember learning that there is a time for learning and a time for play.
