

Ada Mae Strother

November 6, 1935 - January 29, 2019

Ada Mae (Totten) Strother, 83, of Commerce passed away at Integris Miami Hospital in Miami surrounded by her family on Tuesday, January 29, 2018. She was born on November 6, 1935 in Afton, Oklahoma to Curtis William "Pete" and Edna (Plumber) Totten. She married Leon Carl Strother on June 29, 1951, he preceded her in passing. She worked as a cook at area nursing centers, retiring from Higher Call Nursing Center in Quapaw. She loved spoiling all her grandbabies and loved helping others. She made everyone of her grandchildren feel that they were the most important to her. She enjoyed her rose bushes, embroidery, and listening to the Gaither's. She was a faithful member of Father's House for many years. Mrs. Strother was preceded in passing by her parents, Pete and Edna Totten, two sons, Carl Lee and Martin Leon Strother, a daughter Reta Lee Strother, a brother Roy Totten and a sister Freda Colvard.

Survivors include her children Shirley Mae Ceja of Miami, Leta Ann Pena of Commerce, Rose Marie Garcia of Miami and Angelina Elias of Commerce, her twenty-three grandchildren, forty-eight great grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren.

Visitation will be 6-8PM on Wednesday, January 30, 2019 at Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami.

Services are 1:00 PM on Thursday, January 31, 2019 at Father's House in Miami with Reverend James Clevenger officiating.

Friends and family may send the family notes of encouragement by viewing Ada's Tribute Page at www.brown-winters.com.
