“ I am a fellow veteran who knew Al from the VAMC in OKC. He seemed a kind and generous man who was quietly watchful but when he spoke, he showed his compassion and insight readily. I took several classes with him and he was unfailingly a gentleman in every encounter I had with him. I will miss seeing his quirky smile and his signature black Tophat that he wore so often. My condolences go out to his family.

Sincerely, Janelle Heinrich
