“ I always felt Mark,s kindness coming through when we would see him whenever he would come visit relatives in Bonners Ferry Idaho I have been remembering different conversations I had with him and where they took place . Those are special memories because of the interest he took in my life

Appreciated how he would always take time to visit when he came to the Bread Basket Bakery in Bonners Ferry

Prayers for the family and I hope we can inspire people as he did with his life

“ My deepest condolences to the Yoder family. I have worked with Mark for 8 yrs here at Hoover & he was a wonderful, sweet, easy going man.

I was never able to travel to meet him in person & surely regret missing out on that. Very sad to hear of his passing. Many many prayers for Mark's family, He will sure be missed GREATLY here with the Hoover Treated Wood Products family.
