“ I just learned of Barbara's passing today (1/18/11). I am so sorry for her loss. Please accept my sincerest condolences to the family.

She was a friend of many, many Navy folks through her assignments at NAS Dallas, TX. I will be forwarding her obituary to an email listing I have, along with the URL for this guest book.

May Barbara rest in peace, and in the loving arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May God grant the family peace and comfort in the days to come.##imported-begin##Kent Fletcher##imported-end##

“ Dear Wayne and the Curnette family, We send our condolences to your family at your great loss. Barabara had been a dear friend for many years. We were best friends in school and in church. Barbara stood up as Bridesmaid in our wedding in Aug. 1960. We lost track of each other for several years and then reconnected and have kept in touch fairly frequent now since 1998. Our prayers will be with your families at this time. But praise be to God that Barbara is now free of pain. Love, Pat & Carolyn (Hawkins) James##imported-begin##Pat & Carolyn James##imported-end##
