

Betty Jean DeLaMatter

October 17, 1938 - February 8, 2025

Betty Jean DeLaMatter, 86, went to be with the Lord on February 8th, 2025, in Exeter, Missouri. Betty was born on October 17, 1938, in Zion, Illinois, to Theron and Dorothy (Koster) Boyce. She married William DeLaMatter on January 18, 1957. She is preceded in death by her husband William, parents, Theron and Dorothy Boyce, brother, Theron Boyce Jr., daughter, Sandy Jo DeLaMatter, and granddaughter, Samantha Jo DeLaMatter. She is survived by daughter Margaret Nicholas, (Mark), son Rex DeLaMatter, (Jennifer), daughter Ginger Wise, (Kevin), sisters: Brenda Spoo, Hazel Bossert and Bessie Martin, (James), sixteen grandchildren, thirty great-grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

She loved Jesus first and foremost, and her family dearly. She enjoyed her flowers and gardening. You could always find her outside hunting berries, and persimmons, picking veggies and gathering seeds from her favorite flowers. Her hands were never still. She always had a crocheting project going. Each new baby got a beautiful blanket and for every birthday the great grandchildren got a crocheted stuffed critter.

There was always a puzzle going if she had to be inside long. She had fun running traps with Rex, traveling to see new places and visiting family. She took such joy in seeing her grandkids and great grand kids.

“ We loved Aunt Betty so much. My favorite memory was waiting to visit them each summer to have her sun sweet tea. It was the best tea I've ever had and it was always waiting for us when we got there.
