“ I have my whole life filled with memories of you. You were my everything as far back as I can remember. I'll thank god everyday that he allowed me to be with you right up until it was your day to go home. I'll miss our morning coffee, your cooking, our tv shows, my daughter youngest brushing your hair, and all the love you had for everyone. Most of all I'll miss just being able to talk to you. You was always there when I just needed that. Rest easy in heaven now. But, know there isn't a single day on this earth I won't miss you. But, you already know that. We talked about this day so many times. Where I would just cry and you would tell me it would be ok. Because, how scarred I was when it was time. Just know how much me and all the kids will love and miss you.
