After being honorably discharged from the military he came back home and found work in the mines in Missouri until he met the love of his life Jonnita Reneé Whited, and they would spend fifty-six wonderful years loving one another and raising three children. Bob worked as a welder/fabricator his whole life. When he wasn't working, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, going to church, and loving on his miniature schnauzer Skye. He especially enjoyed the monthly dinners with his family. Bob's greatest love in life was The Lord. He and Jonnita would travel and spread the love of God attending revivals and camp meetings across Arkansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma. When he wasn't travelling, he called Friendship Community Church with Pastor Delores Terrell, his "BFF" in Mannford, Oklahoma home. Bob is preceded in passing by his parents, Lafe Elijah and Opal Violet Johnson, his mother-in-law, who loved him like her own son, Ora Bell Whited, brother, Charles "Chuck" Turner, bother, Joe Dean Johnson, brother, Lafie Clifford Johnson, and sister-in-law Frankie Whited-Ventura.
