

Brenda Ann Martin

January 21, 1942 - May 4, 2026

Brenda Ann Martin, 84, a resident of Fairland, Oklahoma, passed away in her home surrounded by family on May 4, 2026. Mrs. Martin was born on January 21, 1942, in Los Angeles, California, to David (Papa) Humphreys and Kathryn (Tutu) Dunn, Humphreys. She was joined by her younger sibling group which consisted of brother John Humphreys, sister Paula (Humphreys) McGowan, and sister Denise Humphreys. Mrs. Martin graduated from Long Beach High School with the class of 1959. She attended Biola College, in La Mirada, California, for one year until she met her husband to be, Harold Williams, and wedded shortly thereafter. A year later their first child was born, Debra Lynn Williams, and within a year and a half, a son, Mark Harold Williams was born. She was a homemaker for her husband and children, living in Southern California, busy with church, extended family and social activities.

Later in her life she was wed to Roy Lester Martin, and a year later had a baby girl, Christine Marie Martin. Mrs. Martin was a homemaker once again for her family until they eventually moved to Prescott Arizona, opening a machine shop, where she assisted her husband with clerical and business aspects. She also enjoyed roller skating at the local skating rink with her young daughter Christine to have fun and keep fit, she helped with school field trips and activities, as well as eating out often at a variety of restaurants, especially Mexican food, her favorite throughout her lifetime. She loved dogs of all sorts, but especially her fur baby Louie.

Throughout her life Mrs. Martin spent many hours taking long walks, reading and spending time in the local library pursuing new reading finds, being out in nature as much as possible, and watching her favorite TV shows. In later years, deer and bird watching became an added hobby which she especially enjoyed. She loved her bright turquoise Toyota Prius and would be out driving as much as she was possible. While catching up with family members, she was able to keep track of all the fun activities and travels of her siblings, children, and grandchildren and this brought her great joy.

Mrs. Martin is preceded in passing by husband Roy Martin, her parents, David and Kathryn Humphreys, and grandson, Cameron Martin.
