*Sadly offering my deepest Condolences to husband, Burl Lane, a Master of the Saxophone Orchestral solo's and repertoire, also superb Bassoonist of the Solti/CSO and under Daniel Barenboim plus Carlo Maria Giulini, Rare Principal Guest Conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. I'm sure Burl's treasured life partner and wife, Jane, joined him on many Foreign CSO Concert Tours and was always at his side throughout their very long and loving married life together ... My sincere heartfelt sympathies to husband, Burl Lane, a coveted CSO Colleague during my own tenure in the Solti/CSO ~ Violinist in both the 2nd and 1st Violins whilst in the Orchestra ~ Elisabeth Matesky I am so sorry for your irreplaceable loss ~ dear Burl ...

Burl and family I know you won't remember me but I was Grace and Roy Carr's grandson. My heart felt sympathies go out to you. I remember attending yours and Janie's wedding. I remember asking Grandma if the isle was wide enough for Sterling and her to get down it because her dress was so full. Grandma and Grandpa were life long friends with Dorothy and Sterling. Both Dorothy and Grandma work many years as telephone operators. Again my Condolences to the family signed Steve Sweeten former Picher resident. P,S. I was 7 years old when you got married.

Burl and family, So sorry to learn of Jane's passing. It was always a pleasure to visit with her. I have fond memories of boating to Guttenberg one evening with you for dinner several years ago. She was a joy! Deepest sympathy. Nancy Klossing

A forest of firewood was consumed sitting around the fire with Jane and her family. Her home cooking was the best. We'll always remember her spirit and sense of humor. Burl and Kate we are with you. John and Tina
