“ Carolyn was one of my best friends, I met her when I was 35 and she was 48 when one day her and Paula VanPool another friend of hers walked into my salon and from then on we were always friends, I remember going out to eat with her a lot and going to antique auctions, shopping for Christmas presents, once I took her to see Kenny Rodgers on her birthday. We always laughed and had such a good time and I will truly miss her the rest of my life.
GOD will always be with Carolyn to take care of her, she loved our LORD so much , all of her friends, grandkids, kids, great grandkids have lived better lives because of her.
CAROLYN, I will miss you forever!

“ My beloved friend suffers no more, and for that I am so thankful. We shared more than 30 years of friendship; the greatest joy of those years was sharing the faith and love of our Lord Jesus Christ. God bless you, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren...she loved you dearly and was faithful in her prayers for you. Cherish this legacy of love and prayer.
