“ Carolyn was always Momma Chapman to me.. I was the only person that called her that... one day when, she still worked at Wal-Mart I had seen her go a couple isles up from me, but she didn't see me.. So I said in a loud, but playful, manner,"Momma Chapman, Momma Chapman it's me your adopted child" lol.. She came to where I was and she said"Don't call me that in public", and she's trying to keep a straight face and not laugh and pretend like it made her mad lol.. Then when she couldn't hold her laughter anymore cause I thought she was serious and getting on to me and I about cried , she started to giggle a d gave me a hug and told me she was teasing lol.. Then about 5 years ago or so she made me a lap quilt with all my favorite things on my favorite colors of material for my birthday.. on the ba k of it she had put a tag on it and said"Happy Birthday Love Always, Momma Chapman"... I'm gonna miss you so much,but I promise to never forget you.. I love you.. Fly High with your beautiful wings and we will see each other again some day.. Rest In Peace Momma Chapman,, Rest In Peace...

“ We didn't get to meet Carolyn in person from what Cheryl her daughter has told us she was a very kind, sweet lady. I know the past few years has been hard on Cheryl seeing her mom deteriorate before her eyes. Cheryl loved her mom deeply and will miss her greatly. Our thoughts and prayers are with Cheryl, Allen, Matthew, Jessica, Tobi and her 2 sisters and their families. Carolyn has renewed her strength and is with her lord and savior.
We love you!!!
