

Charles Ewing

March 3, 1953 - April 27, 2024

Charles Ewing, 71, a resident of Miami passed away at his home on Saturday, April 27, 2024. Mr. Ewing was born on March 3, 1953 in Shawnee, Oklahoma to Clifford Charles Ewing and Ida Lou (Lewis) Morgan. Charles worked on building site construction, he had also worked in the oil fields which he really enjoyed. Charles played the drums as a studio musician, but couldn't pass up a piano, he loved to play the piano. He was a proud father, he didn't talk to many without telling them about his children and that he had one child that was a cop and one that was in the military. Charles was preceded in passing by his father Clifford Ewing.

Survivors include his wife Mary (Jeffries) Ewing, his children Cynthia Edwards of Claremore, Carol Anne Elliott of Grandview, Texas and Clifford Lyle Ewing of Claremore, his grandchildren Kayla Lee Whiteaker, Anna Belle Whiteaker, Kevin Titus Edwards, Kenneth Robbie Elliott and Caydenc Elliott, along with his siblings Clifford Wayne Ewing, Marlene Birdwell, Retha Brown and Jerrita Redding.

Mr. Ewing's wishes were for cremation. Cremation services were placed in the care of Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami.

Friends and family may send the family notes of encouragement by viewing Mr. Ewing's Tribute Page at www.brown-winters.com.

“ OH WHERE DO I BEGIN? I HAVE SO MANY MEMORIES OF BOBBY SPANNING 60+ YEARS OF BEING FRIENDS. WE MET IN IN THE EARLY 60'S WHEN WE BOTH ATTENDED OSB (OKLAHOMA SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND) IN MUSKOGEE. WE WERE FRIENDS, HE WAS MY FIRST BOYFRIEND, BUT WE WERE MORE LIKE BROTHER AND SISTER EVEN AFTER ALL THIS TIME. IT'S HARD TO JUST COME UP WITH ONE MEMORY AS I HAVE SO MANY OF HIM. HE WAS THE ONE FRIEND THAT I TALKED TO EVERY COUPLE OF WEEKS AFTER GRADUATION. HE ALWAYS WAS SAYING "BUT I'M CUTE" AND WE WOULD LAUGH AFTER I'D SAY ONLY IN YOUR DREAMS LOL. AND HE ALWAYS ENDED HIS CALLS WITH " LOVE YA" HOW I WILL MISS THOSE CALLS. FLY HIGH MY FRIEND AND DON'T CAUSE TOO MUCH MISCHIEF UP THERE TILL WE MEET AGAIN.
