“ Frank and Joyce were our neighbors for 23 years. They were kind and helpful to us,as we were from Chicago and green to country living. Frank helped us with bailing hay and gave advice on raising calves. Frank and Leroy took my brother and I coon hunting one night. I still have the memories. Frank would always wave at you if he was sitting on the front porch. I have just now heard of his passing. Very sad news sending thoughts and prayers to Joyce and family. We will miss him bunches. I could always count on Frank to come in the pharmacy and give me a hard time. I will surely miss him because he always brought a bright spot to my day. Frank was going to take Joyce and I out to lunch or dinner but then the virus hit. We didn't get that meal on earth but I know we will have a much bigger celebration in heaven someday. Love you, my ole friend.
