“ I feel blessed to have had a friend like Elaine. Some of my happiest times as a young married adult came from time with her..... raising our kids together, family camping trips, Bloomin' Ballooney, girls trips, and much more. She was the life of every party! Love you, Elaine! I already miss you more than any words can express. Keep them laughing in Heaven.

Elaine was such a great friend through Junior High and High School. She and I both liked to laugh and cut up. We were in trouble a lot with our teachers. We both were athletic and loved sports. When we were in Miamiettes, we were both second from the end in our formation because we were the same height. So when we did the maypole routine at football games, we would switch places when we intersected. Mrs. Hammons couldn't figure out why she would see Elaine at both ends. I am so sad to hear of her passing. I'm praying for Michelle and Dean and her grandchildren that God would carry them through this Valley. You will be missed, Elaine.
