“ Many memories were made before, on and after "C" street. My siblings and I grew up with a No nonsense Aunt. If you play, you pick up, If you chew gum, you DON'T smack it!!, and absolutely no tattletelling or were all getting it. She made great sweet tea, had and traveled with her own cup. We were truly Blessed to have her in our lives growing up. She is Loved and will be missed. Jennifer, Stephanie and Melissa my Thoughts and Prayers are with you and your families.

“ Growing up Aunt Cherie was a second momma to my siblings and I . Even grown we knew if we needed anything she was a phone call away. She was the best secret keeper, cake baker and her sweet tea has yet to be matched. Hopefully this story will help you ladies smile. One night after a long shift at HOH I was rushing home doing 88 in a 75 and was pulled over by a highway patrol, he asked me to sit in his car while he ran my Id and plates. Then over the radio I hear Shandi Michelle! In her screechy little voice, the lady couldn't yell to save her life. The highway patrolman looked at me and chuckled and said I think you're in enough trouble and wrote me out a warning. She gave me a lecture about getting home safe to my kids and not wanting to have to send one of her guys to my house to notify my family because I wanted to save time. I'm so sorry Jen, Steph and Sis I can't make it tomorrow praying you feel Gods strength, peace and comfort in the days ahead. Love you guys.

Thanks for making the biggest princess castle birthday cake for savanna's sweet 16 and not questioning why a 16 year old needed that! Thank you for the memories! ❤️
