I always counted Claranne as a close friend. My last memories were of all us girls at the monthly Birthday Party. She always knew that she was among friends and seemed to have a good time.

“ We are deeply saddened to learn of Claranne's passing. She was such a sweet lady and a great mother. We appreciated all the support she gave as a youth mother when we were youth sponsors at First UMC many years ago. Prayers for the family. Rest in peace, Claranne.

“ She was just the most beautiful lady. I will never forget that she and Bob were the first Hayes family members that I met after getting engaged to Jerry. They invited us to their home in Owasso. Aunt Anne also taught my niece and nephews in Miami and how they all loved her. She was a special lady who always looked like a million dollars with her beautiful hair and clothes. My prayers are with her entire family as they grieve the loss of this lovely lady. May you rest in eternal peace Aunt Clareanne.
