“ This day, I learned of Clifs passing. Linda, my heart aches for you and I'm so very sorry. Clif was always kind, quick to help someone in need and one of God's own. I know I will see him again as you will, Linda.

“ I remember when I met Clifton. He was kind, understanding and didn't judge me. He was one of the main reasons I got saved. He ALWAYS quoted me scripture and cared how I was doing. He helped plant a seed and watered it. A true friend and a true servant of GOD. I have miss him since the plant shut down. I will see you again my friend. Love you brother.

“ Meeting Clifton at leaders gatherings and in the Coffee Shop in PITTSBURG Kansas I was struck but two important character strengths he had. He was a good listener and really humble. Great leaders have both! A good shepherd and a great loss.
