“ I am saddened to learn of Coy's passing. I was once asked about Coy, as an attorney, by a future client. I described Coy accurately as "absolutely reliable." It was a pleasure knowing him. Sending prayers and condolences for the family.

“ Coy and I became friends in law school. When he and Glenda got married, Harold Huffman and I drove to Miami for the wedding. I had always planned on visiting them there but never got around to it. He had a way with words. He could turn a phrase like the best of writers. I am deeply saddened by his loss. You are in my prayers.
