“ My condolences to Darin, Ashley and the rest of the family. While growing up with Damon and living so close to each other. We were pretty much involved into doing things together all the time Fishing,, camping or hunting. Lots of good times we shared. But the most funny moment, was when he complained about him and Paul having to chip in 2.00 a week for both of them together going back and fourth to MHS. He said I was making more money than big oil. lol Wow, how the times have changed. We enjoyed our times hanging out at Ken's pizza, hanging out with Paul and giving Gene the manager a few laughs. Damon they broke the mold after you, with your wit and humor. Definately one of a kind. Rest in peace, my brother. Your never forgotten.
