Beautiful and yes they are his boys, and you two sure raised your share of hell. Feel blessed you had what very few ever get real love. Not even death can take that away. I do love you.

“ This was the first time you held my daughter, your niece Jayda Jean. Jayda after your wife (my sister) Jade. You were so afraid you would break her. The other picture was the last birthday you had while you were with us. My wife made you the cake and we got you a cane as a joke. You weren't just my brother-in-law you were my brother. I love you “Donny” and my children will always know who their Uncle Dan was. Jax will miss you and Jayda will know who you were. We miss you every day and I'll never say goodbye to you. So for now we will say “see you later”. We will play the radio more for you, even if it's all the goofy songs you loved. I'd do anything to hung your neck one more time and spend one more day with you. Thank you for the years of caring for my sister and your boys. I'll take it from here.

“ Cousins are people that are ready made friends, you have laughs with them and remember good times from a young age, you have fights with them but you always know you love each other, they are a better thing than brothers and sisters and friends cause there all pieced together as one.
