“ My condolences to the family.David,Damon and I were childhood friends.We went to the same schools.Hung out and partied together.What I think I admired the most about him.Was his excitement of being a dad.And he was always talking about his brothers achievements in life.He was proud of his daughter and his brothers.I really think that's what kept him going all these years,was that love for his family. REST IN PEACE,MY FRIEND.Eddie Franklin

“ I spent a lot of hours in shop with David. He always helped those in need . One time I remember working on a car for an expectant mother who was due anytime and no money . We worked till Dawn to get the car done for free .

“ You always treated me the same as your daughter, forever memories tagging along to dr appointments and fun at Casa Bonita, or telling us to be quiet, or making sure to tell us what a pain in your side we were 😞 we were a handful to say the least but you made sure we always had fun! Rest easy!
