“ I worked Crazy Dave's basketball camps in Wynnewood for years. And I did work but that's what he taught me as a young coach, is how to work and work hard. I admired what he did as a coach and as a person. You will be missed.

“ Coach award came to Wynnewood my senior year. He totally turned our basketball program around in one year. We worked hard and learned all we could. We made it to the area tournament and the entire town rallied around our girls team. I have awesome memories of that season and will always appreciate Coach Ward. Robin (Russell) Jolly

I just learned of David's death. I also grew up in Ramona and knew some of David's family. The last time I saw him was in the early 60's. I'm not surprised that he is loved by so many and had such a successful life. He was a wonderful person--everyone loved David.. RIP
