“ WELL DINK YOU DID MAKE IT HOME BEFORE ME, AND HOW I WOULD HAVE LOVED TO HEAR THE LORD WELCOME YOU HOME TO GLORY I BET HE EMBRACED YOU AND SAID THESE WORDS

WELCOME HOME MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!!!

Many hours in the word and prayer you will be remembered by many a lonely heart you lifted up and pointed them to the MASTER HE WHO IS ABLE TO MEET ALL Their needs and ours as well. Many times you filled a hungry belly or gave an encouraging word to a down cast spirit and brought a smile and a word of hope to people you may have only met once, but when you cross those folks minds they will remember IT IS WRITTEN LOVE CONQUERS ALL. I COULD NOT HAVE HAD A BETTER FRIEND,OR BROTHER IN CHRIST. AS IT IS WRITTEN THOSE OF US STILL HERE IN THE FLESH MUST PRESS ON AND RUN THE RACE TO WIN. As we have said so many times before ending a call or visit LOVE YOU MY BROTHER. i will do my best concerning the 3 promises you asked for. The boys will grow into manhood remembering YOU LOVED THEM WITH ALL YOU HAD AND KNEW.

“ So many great memories of "Dink" from back in high school. He was a very generous man and never let me or Devin go hungry, that's for sure! I can recall so many times him picking us up from school and taking us to get pizza or Taco Bell, and on some occasions, BOTH! Afterall, we were growing boys ya know?! I also can remember the speed at which he drove. If we were headed to a baseball game, we were sure to leave early so to get there on time. I don't think he ever went much over 45mph...ever. He could always make me laugh, especially when him and Devin would argue. That was something out of a sitcom! You will be missed, Dink! RIP
