“ Reading Diane’s obit was an unpleasant surprise. It assuredly brought back some very fond memories of our early years at Will Rogers Elementary—our teachers: Ms Cottam, Ms Webster—we were in 1st Grade in 1953. I also fondly recall when I put the two persons together—Mr Darrell was my best “lemonade” customer as he delivered our mail—“He’s your Dad?” I fondly remember Diane’s bragging about being older (my birthday is in May).

I extend heartfelt condolences to each member of her family.

“ I first met Diane when I attended the First Baptist Church in Miami. She was beautiful and stylish accompanied by her cute guy Ronnie.
She was everything I hoped to be when I grew up! We actually moved down the street from This beautiful couple in 1982. She was a wonderful mother and neighbor! We enjoyed having Gina over to swim. Our thought and prayers are with all of her beautiful sweet family. We are so sorry for your loss. ❤️🙏 Connie and Steve Deems
