“ He was truly my most treasured friend in the world. He was with me Everytime I ever needed him. I am a widow with two grown sons and grandchildren. There have been times in my life when I needed someone to to live me and mine, as if we were his own. Don did just that,. Not once, but several times, and we loved him the same. I gave him the the nickname pebbles, for silly reasons a few years back,. And it stuck, with my kids and grandkids. Pebbles, we will hold you in our hearts until we see you again. Don I love you. Hold my seat in heaven right next to yours,. I'll be along in a little while. I love you,. Robin.

“ My most memorable moment was the last few hours of his time here with us. I visited with him for 3 hours Tuesday night, we laughed, we cried, we were, we are & we will always be family. It was an honor & a pleasure to have shared that time with him. Our last words to one another were a very sencere "I love you." Seldom in life are we given the opportunity to be so honest & candid with anyone as he & i were that evening. I was truly blessed to have that time with him. He will be missed by all who knew him. It should comfort all to know that he was not scared, he was ready to go & looked forward to being with his mother & father again. Ride on cousin.
