“ Hello... My name is Jennifer Carner, I am one of Donna Bock's granddaughters, I know I am probably a little late in posting something but I just needed time to process everything but my greatest memory of my grandmother is how she always was so full of love, she was always ready with a hug and kiss for everyone, she always would tell me "Jennifer Lynn, I love you to the moon and back." She was always proud of all her grandkids, and adored her great grand kids. My grandmother was the best grandma in the world to me , I would not be the person I am without her and my mom raising me. I love you to the moon and back Grandma, and I also miss you terribly, I am so sorry for not flying out to visit you when I should of to see you. I hope your dancing with Grandpa in heaven and that you're smiling and happy. I love you!
