

Doris Dean Connell

June 25, 1936 - September 15, 2015

Doris Dean Connell, 79, of Miami passed away peacefully with her family by her side in Joplin, September 15, 2015. She loved tending to her flowers and yard. She cherished the time she spent with her family. Dean enjoyed reading and listening to music and she always looked forward to the Saturday outings with her daughter. Mrs. Connell worked as a beauty operator for many years in Miami. She was born June 25, 1936 in the rural Goodman area to Ida "Mom" and Alf "Pop" Arnold, both preceded her in passing. She was also preceded in passing by her husband's Calvin Johnson and Wilfred Connell. Also two sons Danny and Dennis Johnson.

She is survived by her daughter Donna Lewis and her husband Ed of Fairland, six grandchildren Justin Lewis and Lacy Lewis both of Fairland, Kenny and wife Erin Johnson, James Johnson and wife Sherri from Claremore, Sarah Hicks and husband Jack from Tahlequah and Crystal Johnson from Springfield, Missouri. Her great grandchildren are Kaylee Lewis, Ruby Mann, Madison Johnson, Madilyn Johnson, Max Johnson, Kendra Johnson, Brady Johnson, Polly Williams and Isaac Hicks.

Visitation is 6-8pm Friday at Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service, Miami.

Graveside Services are 2:00 PM Saturday at Owsley Union Cemetery east of Anderson, Missouri with Reverend Jerry Jones officiating. Services are under the care of Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami.

“ Many fond memories of my Aunt Dean. Baking cookies, doing hair, playing with Tim, waiting on Uncle Welford to come home from work, going camping & swimming. Aunt Dean made my childhood very special. I will miss her. You are all in my prayers and I am very sorry I can not be with you this weekend to say good bye.
