

E. Dale Wiggins

October 1, 1943 - May 16, 2020

Dale Wiggins, age 76, passed away Saturday, May 16, 2020, with family by his side. He was born October 1, 1943 in Lawton, OK to Weldon and Eula Mae (John-son) Wig-gins. He grew up in Lawton and at the age of 14 he was building houses with his father. In 1970 he started working as a body shop manager in Chevrolet dealerships in Lawton, Purcell and later OKC. This line of work took him into insurance adjusting vehicles and later construction and insurance repairs with his own company C&H Construction where he retired in May 2009. He married the love of his life, Connie (Roblyer) and together they blended two families into one. Dale loved to fish, play golf and drink coffee with his friends. But his happiest of moments was that spent with his family, from watching their sporting events, talking on the Marco Polo app with his nieces to singing commercial tunes with his grandkids. He was a true family man and cherished every moment. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Ronnie. Dale is survived by his wife, Connie; one son, Jeff Wiggins and wife Carrie; two daughters, Jennifer Harper and husband OJ and Samantha Neff and husband Patrick; two special nieces, Tamra Wooten and Shelley Henrion and husband Tony. Also, by nine grandchildren, three great grandchildren and seven great nieces and nephews.
