“Humble”, “kind”, and “gentle” are attributes that immediately come to my mind when I think of Aunt Edith. As a boy growing up and loving the waterways of Oklahoma, I relished the times we went to Uncle Luther’s and Aunt Edith’s cabin on Grand Lake where I learned to water ski at age 5, with dad tending the boat and Uncle Luther holding onto my arm until I learned how to get up on my own. The family gatherings of aunts, uncles, and cousins at the lake are some of my fondest memories. And there were always some soft peppermint candy canes in a jar ready for us when we arrived. I don’t think I’ve ever heard a cross word from Aunt Edith’s mouth. She had a sweet soul. And though I use the past tense here, that’s only for those of us still stuck down here. I know I’ll see her again in Heaven, where much rejoicing is going on over her ascension. Aunt Edith was a positive influence on my life and strange as it may sound, I’m thrilled she is now reunited with loved ones in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Save me a seat, Aunt Edith! I’ll be along when I’ve accomplished my missions here.

“ Edith has meant a lot to our family over the years. She and my wife’s mother, Ruth Frasier, had been best friends for years and went to Wendy’s every Tuesday to have the chili special while Ruth was still able. Edith’s husband Luther and Ruth’s husband Jack were also good friends, having worked together in the mines. Edith used to tell about growing up as a sharecropper’s daughter and working picking cotton and other crops. We’d love to know more about Edith as a tribute and would hope that someone in her family is working on an obituary for future posting. Linda and Ben Simpson

Thank you for sharing your memories of my sister. I am her youngest sister and only living sibling. She was like a second mother to me. I also remember Ruth, Edith mentioned her and their good times to me many times.

Shirley, we have some good friends named McConnell and was wondering if there was any connection. Their family used to own the Shawnee Grocery as well as a grocery store in Wyandotte during the 60s. I think they were originally from around Tipton Ford between Neosho and Joplin. Ben Simpson

Ben. My husband's family were from the Nixa/ Springfield MO area. As far as I know they had no relatives in OK but may be distant relatives.
