“ Daddy I am sorry I didn't come to visit you for last 5 years. I hope you can forgive me for being a bad daughter. I loved you very much but, my only excuse is time I was to busy to come see you. You taught me to be caring, helpful, strong, to do the best to my ability, to work hard, and do a job right, not to lie and tell the truth, you taught me good values. You were a good daddy and papa. Jamee loved his Gaga and always cheered and enjoyed spending time with you. Robert and Bobbi loved riding in the wagon you pulling them around the yard. Robert loved you teaching him how to cast a rod and reel, helping you change tires and piddling in the yard with you. I remember your goofy songs you made up and making us laugh. Anytime I called and asked for help you were always there for me. I am truly sorry I wasn't there for your last 5 years I thought you'd be here forever. I love you daddy and I pray for you every single day and night. You oldest daughter Edwina Hardison aka Wendy Lake

“ I remember my dad wanting nothing to do with the son who was "taking care" of him and using him, charging my dad $100 a week to go get him groceries and left him to die on the floor of his home. You were NOT his son. That is why you weren't named after him. Enjoy all get Eddie, because that is the last you will ever get. None of those things that you have stolen will replace his love.

“ Hello, Ed and all of your family. I am sorry for your loss. I am Eddene (Hightower) Thompson of Broken Arrow. My daughter, Debra Lynn has been married to Edward's nephew, Robert James Thompson for many years and has been around your family many times. I was sorry to hear about your daddy. Both my husband, Newt and I went to highschool in Vinita for a period of time with Edward and his brothers and half-brothers and remember them as sweet young men. Prayers for all of you from our family. Prayers for the Peace of God that all questions or problems will be taken care of. Sincerely, Eddene
