“ Sorry for the loss of your mother. She was a wonderful women, educator and Christian. She taught my sister and my self in grade school. Our mother was a fellow teacher with her and she respected her greatly! She will be truly missed. But God always has a plan. She will live on thru each of you and through all of the people that her life influenced. She will be in our prayers. Robert Baker, Nancy Charles & John Baker

“ Mrs. Reynolds and I met in 1981 when I became elementary principal at Fairland Schools. She taught a variety of grade levels while I was there, but one year she taught a combination first and second grade class in her room. If anyone could do that without a blink of an eye it would be her. She was such a kind, calm soul. She had that air of being everyone's friend and grandmother. I admired her dedication and love for teaching and children, whether it was for school, 4-H, or her church. She was a very hard worker wherever she was and she loved her family and her God wholeheartedly. She has gained her heavenly reward for a life serving others! My sincere condolences to her family and friends. Ron Cash

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Melvin remembers buying milk from your family farm. I was a friend of Ella’s through Kappa and Retired Teachers. Ella was the sweetest lady.
When she prayed, Jesus was in the room. The cards I received from Ella were joyful. She included clippings, stickers, and messages written on the envelopes. She will be missed.
