“ David,

I'm so sorry to hear of your Mother's passing. I often wonder how she put up with the two of us growing up. She always treated me like one of the family. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Grandma Wanda was one of the toughest, most strong-willed, and loving women I knew. It always amazed me the things she was capable of doing with a needle, thread, and some fabric. I remember visiting her when my sisters and I were younger and playing with the jars of buttons she always had. It always seemed so cool that she just had jars and jars of buttons and a million different kinds of fabric and thread. Her collection of sewing machines is pretty legendary as well. I was always in awe of her talent.

I wish I had gone to see her more often in the last few years, but I am so thankful that I got to see her a few weeks ago and was able to talk to her and tell her I loved her. She loved all her kids and all of us grand kids so much. She will be greatly missed, but I know she is watching over all of us now.

I love you Grandma.
