“ Granny was truly a remarkable lady. She was one of a kind. She had a heart of gold and she will be missed by each and everyone of us. I feel very fortunate to have had her as my Grandmother. I have learned a lot from her over the years. I will cherish the memories. As time goes by I hope each of you find comfort in your own precious memories of her . Remember the good times and share them with others. We Love you Granny. Rest in peace.
