“ I'm grateful to have known what a blessing Frank was in my family's life from stories I've heard growing up. I also was blessed to see his love for us as I grew up and in each visit. We're blessed and I'm grateful to have known him.

“ Papa Frank was an incredible man, I went to his daycare when I growing up. He was like a grandfather, he loved, encouraged and care for all of us there. Frank was a blessing, one of my favorite memories of him is cooking all those delicious meals. I remember coming off the bus and having those no bake chocolate oat cookies, to this day every time I eat them I think of him. Sending lots of love to his beautiful family, may God comfort you during this time. - Ashley

“ Frank was a good buddy of mine back in the day we were hunting buddies and my wife and I were good friends with Frank and ruthie. Frank was fun and he would have your back if you was his friend or family. He was also one of the best shade tree mechanics I've known. We overhauled several engines together mainly he done all the hard stuff , he was fast and done it right. I remember when he bought a new car with a diesel engine and he decided he didn't want a diesel so he changed the diesel out for a v8 chevy. He had to change basically everything under the hood and it was one time he almost gave up on it but he gotrdone lol. Lots of good memories .So sorry for Ruthiee and the girls.

“ Loved Frank and love his family. Frank and Ruthie were like my 2nd parents during college when I was at their house a lot. They always treated me like one of the family. Then my kids went to the daycare and I couldn't have asked for better. I have so many memories but one that I want to share is that every time I eat peanut butter fudge I think of him and how nobody can make it as good as he did. He will be missed. Tina Digby
