“Sad to hear of Gary's passing. He was a good friend who always made me feel welcome when I would drop by to see him and always insisted that I eat something with him. He could make u laugh easily and had a heart of GOLD even though he would rather u didn't know that. I was sick not long ago and he couldn't reach me by phone so he called my son very concerned about me. He always thought of others first and loved his family very much. I know Gary was a born again Christian and he loved his Savior. I shall miss him greatly. The last time we spoke, he had called me on the phone to see if I made it home safely from my last visit to his house. This gesture always made me feel special as he would always do that after I visited him. May his Family hold special memories in their Heart and his presence always surround his loved ones.
