“ I have known George since 1958 when we moved to our grandparents. George (and Larry) were are first friends in this part of the country. George asked my brother (Pat) and I to help them haul hay, which we did for 2 cents a bale. George and Larry took us racoon hunting, Gigging frogs at the mouth of the Buffalo river, obtaining watermelons from Mr Baker's watermelon patch and lots of other wonderful things that a growing boy like me needs to know. We gathered native huckleberries from the hills and even went hunting for cougars at night. George served his country and went to Vietnam, and was twice wounded. I remember George running the Bradshaw Grocery and how good it was to stop in the store and see George. He was always willing to help someone else.

George, you will be missed.

Rest in Peace
