“ Oh my onery brat cousin. Not sure where to start with memories. You, Charlie and me sure had some fun times growing up and when we lived close. I remember you holding me back from beating up Charlie and Mark Dethrage time after time. Such fun times we all had playing in the fields and up and down the roads. Rest easy my friend and my family. Much love, your favorite cousin ☐

“ When Pete worked for us, several years ago, he and Stephanie came to our lake lot for a visit. He was so kind and caring, a real gentleman. I remember he always gave her a kiss, even if he was only gone fishing for a short time. He offered to wash the dishes after a meal. He only ate once or twice a day, but I offered meals more often. He was a good worker and knew how to fix anything. So caring, loved pets, love his family. My husband is really missing the nearly daily phone calls! To the family: May memories bless your hearts.
