“ Sad to learn of Georgia's passing. End of an era. Georgia and her husband Herb were great longtime dear friends of my parent's, F. E. & Dorothy Stone. Such wonderful memories from those years in Miami. Sweet, sweet lady is reunited with her precious Sandy & Herb. R.I.P.
Sincerely, Debbie Stone Paul.

“ My Mother and Georgia were friends and schoolmates, so I have always known Georgia. Then Sandy and I were the same age and attended school together, Georgia and I belonged to several of the same clubs in Miami, and played bridge. Always had a smile, always asking about my grandchildren. Had a great sense of humor and was always ready to have a little fun. I will miss you dear lady.

“ I never saw Georgia without a smile. She is an example of what First Christian Church is all about. When they needed volunteers in the kitchen she was right there ready to help with a smile. She is one special lady everyone loved and knew because of her sweet attitude. I'm thankful she has finished her race and is with Jesus for eternity. See you soon, Georgia. Love, Kay Simmons

“ Rest in peace you dear, sweet lady. Knew you all my life and you were one of the kindest ladies I have known. You sent get well cards to my father when he was battling cancer. Each card with a stick of chewing gum in it. You were a great friend to me and my family. Sure going to miss your smile and distinctive laugh. Rest in peace.

“ I have dreaded this day. The loss of our sweet Georgia will be felt throughout the First Christian Church and our community as well. She was so sweet and I don't think I ever saw her without that impish smile. We will see you soon, Georgia!
