

Geraldean "Geri" Wyrick

January 7, 1931 - May 12, 2014

Geraldean "Geri" Wyrick, 83, passed away at the Integris Baptist Regional Health Center on Monday, May 12, 2014.

She was born east of Miami on January 7, 1931, to Charles and Martha Ball as the youngest of five children. She was preceded in death by her parents and four siblings, Anne, Claude, Violet and Bobby.

In 1948, she graduated from Miami High School, met Gordon J. Wyrick, also from the Miami area and married him in 1949. She is survived by Ren West (Renick Lynn Wyrick) and his wife Cathy of Miami and Lynne Jones (Connie Lynne Wyrick) and her husband Ron of Norman, Oklahoma. She is also survived by a son from another marriage, Jerry Roberts (Gerald Lee Roberts) and his wife Rebecca of Lander, Wyoming. She also had six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She spent a majority of her life in California where she worked at various businesses as a secretary. Sunbathing at a pool or at the beach was her favorite pastime.

She eventually retired in Palm Desert, California with her long time partner, John Magaldi. Upon his death in 2009, she returned to Miami and lived in The Village apartments on North Elm Street.

In recent years, she enjoyed running the Miami Nursing Center, even though she was just a resident. The staff and her friends at the Nursing Center will surely miss her.

No services are planned at this time. Cremation services have been placed in the care of the Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami. Friends and family may send the family notes of encouragement by viewing Geri's Tribute Page at www.brown-winters.com.
