“ Gracie had an enormous influence on our lives. Our lives have been blessed many times over because of her. Those blessings live on simply because she touched our lives. We know she is now at home in the arms of God.

“ What a wonderful woman that Grandma Gracie was! My husband Chris has grown up with her being "grandma" even though no blood relation exists. She welcomed me into the family as she has so many others. This woman always remembered everyone's birthday and always sent cards with letters of love and encouragement. She will be missed but it is encouraging to know that we will see Grandma again one day in Heaven.
