“ Sending love to you June. I feel so fortunate to have met and spent time with you and Sonny on the Canada trip. Remember interviewing him and was impressed with his character, always ready to smile or take care of someone, holding your hand and praying before every meal no matter where we were. His love for you and the Lord was apparent.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Sonny was a central and driving force as a member of Ottawa County Hearts and Hammers, and his leadership and inspiration will be sorely missed. Sonny was indeed a very special person, one who was always looking for ways to help others. His work touched so many lives. Our prayers and thoughts will be with June and family. Charles Beard
