“ I was a can at the nursing home and always lobed going in to check on Helen and see how she was doing! She always had a smile on her face and could make anyone laugh.. I will never forget her rolling around in her wheel chair with her babies and going out the door at the nursing home just to come back in the front doors. She will defiantly be missed!

“ I have known Helen since 1996. She was always a delight to visit. We had lots of fun bantering back and forth. We could make each other laugh, and it was a pleasure. God has the perfect place for Helen and there is no doubt in my mind she is enjoying that place with no more pain or sorrow and a perfect mind and body. My condolences to all the staff at the Fairland Nursing Home who so lovingly and faithfully took care of her. I know all of you will miss her. God Bless You.
