“ I worked with Imojune for many years at Security Bank. She was always very caring, kind, and loving. She was a friend to all. It was obvious on a daily basis that she loved the Lord and he was the one she followed in life. It was also very evident how much she loved Don, her children and her grandchildren. My sincerest condolences to her family. She will be missed. Thankful for the promise of heaven.

I love these pictures of Imojune and family! She was an integral part of my growing up! I remember the days she would sit at our kitchen table and drink coffee with mom! I also remember babysitting Milton and Randy! Love this family!

“ IMOGENE and I were good friends for 76 years. Some of our best times were the church parties. Norma Jean had a convertible and Imogene and I would get up in the back and wave at everybody. We have some wonderful memories. So thankful that I got to go down and visit with her several weeks ago. She was a wonderful friend
