“ Miss Iva, you were truly one special lady. A dedicated, hard worker and loyal friend. So many special memories of our times together in store planning as we setup new stores. Side trips to visit Amish communities, sights in several states, visits with your parents, sisters, Cody, Bradley and grand son Ethan as a baby. I especially enjoyed visits with you and Don that were always filled with laughter. And nobody made fried chicken like Iva. We shared our faith in our Lord. I will miss you yet, find comfort knowing you are in your true home and that I will see you again one day my precious friend. Love, Donna Whaley

“ It saddens me to read of yet another classmate from Huntsville, AR home of the Eagles 🦅. I remember her from our High School years, she always was very nice, kind, friendly. It made my heart smile reading her obituary, sounds like she had a wonderful husband & family. May God give you comfort & peace during this difficult time. Love, blessings & comfort. June B Ball
