“ Jack was one of the sweetest , kindest men I know. My thoughts include the later years, after we all got older and sitting in church I would feel a hand on my shoulder and hear a chuckle from behind. When I turned, there would be the smiling face of my christian brother....Precious Memories Sue....

“ Sue and family, I was so sorry and saddened to hear of Jack's passing. Jack was a good friend and neighbor. For the last several years he had been bringing us tomatoes and okra from his garden. If we weren't home, he would just hang them on the door. When my husband, Jerry, was diagnosed with cancer last year, Jack would always come find me at church to inquire about him and offer me words of encouragement. He said they would continue to keep Jerry in their prayers even though they were moving away, and I'm sure he did. Sue, I know your pain that you are going through right now. I will be praying for you.
