

James Cody Phillips

January 5, 1995 - May 15, 2022

James Cody “JC” Phillips ,aka Jay Crow, 27, lost his 15 month battle with Brain Cancer on May 15, 2022. He was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana. He lived in Houma, Louisiana, where he was inspired with his music. The band Jay started with was Konstricted, which he was a bassist, vocalist, and one of the founding members. His most current music projects were with Katagory Fyve Fam. Jay was a lover of all genres of music. Music was his first passion. He was also very passionate about his career as a professional piercer. Anyone who knows Jay knew he loved his music , video games, wrestling and enjoyed partying with his friends. Jay was a loving grandson, son, brother and uncle. He also was good at making people smile.

Jay is survived by his grandmothers, Ellen Kruis and Betty Phillips, his mother, Jennifer Kilgore, his father, Bryan Phillips, his sisters, Tabatha Phillips (fiancé Michael) and Kylee Kilgore (fiancé Chaz), his brother , Donovan Phillips, his uncles, Jason Kruis (wife Dawn) , Brandon Phillips , Kent Carlson (wife Julie) , Tim Kilgore (wife Karen), and Kenny Kilgore, his aunts, Joan Fay (husband Walter), Lisa Davison (husband John) , his many Cousins, nephews and niece.

He is preceeded in death by his great grandmother , Helen Matusik, his grandmother, Lois Kilgore, his dad, John Kilgore, his aunt and godmother,

Alice Light, his uncle, Tom Light, and his nephew, Axel Campbell.

Tribute Wall

PB

“ Peggy Bush lit a candle in memory of James Cody Phillips

Peggy Bush - May 24, 2022 at 04:40 PM

ME

“ Melissa lit a candle in memory of James Cody Phillips

Melissa - May 24, 2022 at 03:05 PM