I will never forget a state trooper handing him his muzzle loader and he fired it in the jr high gym . The state trooper put gunpowder in it . But no ball or shot. . He taught or civics class and physical education. .we could never prove it but he cheated for the girls at any sport we played . He was a veteran . He was a role model i look back on fondly . “ Mr Warren was such a wonderful man and father of my best friend in high school. Touched so many young lives and hearts as a teacher and role model for those who knew him. I miss Michael and wish many fond memories for Beverly and Greg

“ Mr. Warren! He was my mentor teacher my first year teaching. He would ask how old I was and exclaim, “23?! No one should be 23!”

Not only did he teach history, but he also taught skills for life. I remember crowds of boys around him as he taught them how to make fishing flies. Of course the girls thought the colorful feathers would make great earrings.

A wonderful teacher and a wonderful man. Rest in peace, Mr. Warren.

“ Mr Warren always made me feel like I was part of his family. He was so funny as a teacher—I did learn to behave when a ruler was nearby! I believe he was the one who got me up on water skis—although not for long! I will love him and his family forever.
