“ I wish we had more time as family and friends. Getting to spend time with you and listening to your stories is how I will always remember you.

It's probably a good thing that we didn't grow up together because we would have had the best bad ideas and a lot of spankings. Although they usually make the best memories. Probably the reason I could sit and listen to your stories all day.

I've seen pictures of children in your life that look like they adore you. So now that you're in heaven you can meet my Sweet Pickle (Sorry, I already nicknamed her). You give her a big ole hug and one from Aunt Pam.

James you will be forever missed and forever loved. I hope there is a fishing hole in heaven for you.

“ So sorry to see where we've lost such a kind and gentle soul as James. I feel privileged to of called him my friend. He will be missed by all who knew him. I don't recall a time when he didn't have a smile on his face and kind words from his mouth, he had such a caring personality, and never met a stranger !!! Rest in peace !!! Josh sorry to see this, stay strong and carry on. ! Tom and Gloria Garner-Workman.
