“ I knew Jamie a short 7 1/2 years. I saw her once a month and that definitely was not near enough. She never complained she was always trying to build up the people around her and do what she could for anybody that she could. I was going to see her several days before she left this Earth. I had bought a wooden handcrafted turtle necklace to give to her. I will now give it to Damien. Buy sea turtle or any kind of turtle as a reminder and of what a great person she was. I love and miss you.

“ Jamie was a great person. Jamie was my house keeper for quite a while, several years ago. Jamie had a huge heart, and great personality. I just checked on Jamie about a week and a half ago, and she said she was doing good that day. Today, she is doing Great. I will miss not seeing her, or talking to her. Until we meet again friend.
